Welcome Tiffany Thornton: New Senior Program Specialist

Tiffany is a true advocate for youth. For over 20 years, she has leaned into her passion and commitment to the work of providing young people with access to programs and opportunities that support their overall quality of life. As Senior Program Specialist, Tiffany will provide the BOOST grants program with critical administrative support in the areas of subgrantee technical assistance, budget management, and provider quality supports. In addition, she will provide direct assistance to a large portfolio of subgrantees and implement the professional development and quality support plan.

3/10/2023 & 3/11/2023: Georgia Tech's STEAM Leadership Conference

Is your program offering STEAM activities? Are you looking to enhance your STEAM programming through new, innovative strategies? Are you a new or existing OST professional looking to enhance your skills? Do you want to learn from leading STEAM professionals? If you answered "Yes!" to any or all the previous questions, the STEAM Leadership Conference at Georgia Tech is for you! As an additional bonus, BOOST will cover the $50 registration fee for 75 participants for DAY 1 of the Conference. At checkout, enter BOOST in the coupon code field. REGISTER TODAY!

3/22/23 Webinar: Integrating STEM in Your Organization

In this webinar, we will explore how to effectively integrate STEM instruction and activities into your afterschool or summer program. We will discuss the benefits of incorporating STEM, share best practices for designing and implementing STEM programs, and provide practical tips for engaging and inspiring youth to explore STEM. Participants will leave with a deeper understanding of how STEM can enhance afterschool and summer programs and the tools needed to implement successful STEM activities that are both fun and educational. Whether you're a seasoned STEM provider or just getting started, this session will provide valuable insights and resources for integrating STEM in your Organization.

Certificate Series with Georgia Center for Nonprofits 3/30/23

GSAN is committed to strengthening the capacity of grantee organizations, and to that end, we are partnering with the Georgia Center for Nonprofits (GCN) to offer three professional series that result in certificates from GCN's Nonprofit University upon completion. These certificate series (valued at over $400 each) are available to BOOST grantees at no cost! The schedule kicks off with Accounting (3-Part Certificate Series).

Please note that each course in a series is approximately 3-hours long, is delivered virtually over

Zoom, and includes additional instructor supports. While these certificates are not eligible for Bright from the Start credit, they are well-respected indicators of professional development throughout the state of Georgia.

BOOST Small Group Coaching Sessions

For program managers that supervise and lead direct service staff.

Grounded in the Afterschool Youth Development Standards, BOOST Small Group Coaching is a curated experience developed especially for you! It's an intimate conversation space, focused on goal setting, deepening awareness around high-quality youth development, key issues in youth work, taking action to improve program quality, and building relationships across the youth development field in Georgia.

BOOST has partnered with HTI Catalyst to lead these dynamic coaching sessions. Participants will leave each coaching session, with tips, tools, and techniques to enhance their daily programs. Participants will engage in deep discussion with their peers as they navigate their unique positions in their organizations and progress quality throughout their programs.

This year, BOOST Small Group Coaching has been curated to support program managers that are leading teams of direct service youth development professionals. Don't delay, register today for your chance to participate in small group coaching sessions! Coaching begins at the end of March!
